

Good News about Our Schools

February 2016

Congratulations Brenda Peregoy French Teacher Triton High School

Mrs. Peregoy was nominated by Principal Chip Mangum. In his nomination he stated, "Mrs. Peregoy is a 36 year veteran of teaching. She has been teaching at Triton since the school opened, coming over from Dunn High School. She has taught French, Journalism, and English. Mrs. Peregoy has supervised the production of our school newspaper, "The Hawkeye" for many years She also teachers adult education classes in the evening. Her love for students and education is evident everyday. This passion has made her a successful teacher throughout her career."

Pictured, left to right: President Elect Meredith Bradham; Brenda Peregoy and Principal Chip Mangum.

Congratulations Leah Dixon 6th-8th Grade Teacher Dunn Middle School

Mrs. Dixon was nominated by one of her students parent, Ann Holloway. In her nomination, Mrs. Holloway stated, "Mrs. Dixon has taught two of my children to this point. She is very dedicated and respectful. A teacher that my daughter looks up to. Every day my daughter comes home and tells me about Mrs. Dixon's class and how much she loves it."

Pictured, left to right: President Elect Meredith Bradham; Leah Dixon, Principal Janet Doffermyre and Assistant Principal Steven Murphy.

The Dunn Middle School Mock Trial team recently competed in the Justice Iredell Middle School Mock Trial Tournament at the Harnett County Courthouse in Lillington. The students were coached by Dunn Attorneys Tilghman Pope and Heather Williams and faculty coach, Brian Zyskowski. Judges' awards were presented to: Daughtry Williams- 1st Place Best Attorney (Prosecution); Taft Stevens – 2nd Place Best Attorney (Prosecution); Ashley Wachtel – 1st Place Best Witness (Prosecution); Eboni Sutton – 1st Place Best Attorney (Defense); Catalina Rodriguez – 1st Place Best Witness (Defense). In addition, the NC Bar Association Foundation awarded Daughtry Williams for Most Effective Attorney and Ashley Wachtel for Most Effective Witness.

Left to Right (Front row) Ashley Wachtel, Christopher Byrd, April Ramirez, Nevondea McNeill; Second Row: Deserrae Ryals, Eboni Sutton, Taft Stevens, Sonya Raolji, Daughtry Williams, Catalina Rodriguez; Third Row: Tilghman Pope, Grayson Bradham, Faculty Coach Brian Zyskowski, Jordan Miles, Ferny Georges

Dunn Middle School

Harnett Primary and Wayne Avenue Schools

Harnett Primary and Wayne Avenue Schools have launched a cooperative program—Reading On the Bus. Each student is encouraged to read on the school bus to promote a literacy filled day! Students that do not have a book can stop by the library or pick one out of the book bag on the bus.