Location

Ideally located, with I-95 going through Dunn and I-40 just 6 miles away, the Dunn area provides quick and easy access to other metropolitan areas, educational opportunities and prime vacation destinations. Dunn is just approximately 25 minutes from the Fort Bragg/Fayetteville area with easy access via Interstate 95. The soon to be complete I-295 will take Dunn citizens easily and quickly to Fort Bragg’s front door. We are just approximately 45 minutes from the RTP area with easy access via Interstate 40. Dunn is just 1 hour from the golfing Mecca at Pinehurst, less than 2 hours from the North Carolina beaches and just 4 hours to the North Carolina Mountains.

Education

Within one hour’s drive, you will find 12 four-year colleges and universities including Harnett County’s own, Campbell University, the second largest private university in the state. Other world-class universities just up the street include the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University in Raleigh and Duke University in Durham. The surrounding area is home to four technical and community college facilities including Central Carolina Community College with two campuses in Harnett County and the Triangle South Enterprise Center in Dunn, which offers continuing education, computer and business classes.

With new and renovated facilities and quality education programs, the Harnett County Schools provide the education experience your children need to prepare for their future. For those living in the Dunn area, Harnett Primary School (k-3), Wayne Avenue School(4-5), Dunn Middle School(6-8) and Triton High School (9-12) have the best teachers, innovated programs and a caring community to further enhance your child's educational experience. We are also home to four private schools – AppleWorks Private School, Cape Fear Christian Academy, Faith Education Academy, and Foundations Christian Academy.

Health Care

Betsy Johnson Regional Hospital, an authorized TriCare provider, is located in Dunn and boasts all-new private patient rooms and like-new facilities for outpatient care. Recently added additions include The Birthing Center, Cardiac Rehabilitation Program and Cancer Center. The Dunn area is also served by a kidney center, various medical centers, dental and optometric care to meet all your health care needs.

Affordable Living

Dunn offers a lower cost of living for its residents than our nearby larger cities. The right home for you at a great price can be found in friendly neighborhoods or in a more rural setting. Contact one of our many local realtors and let them help you find the home that best suites you and your family.
